

PLEASE do not sabotage Indiana's no-call law by allowing banks to start calling their customers! We love our no-call law just as it is! (And if banks are allowed to do this, would that not open the door for many other businesses, etc., to do the same?)